

On August 1, 2012 I, along with several of my colleagues, sent a letter to Senator Reid calling on him to work with us to address the threat that the sequestration cuts pose to our national security. You can read the letter here .